Cambodia ~ The Road to Siem Reap

Step back in time to ancient kingdoms of palaces, temples and markets

Phnom Penh lies at the confluence of the Tonle, Bassac and Mekong Rivers. It is a vibrant city with a clouded past that includes occupation by French Colonialists and the devastation of the Pol Pot Years. On this journey you will meet the Khmer people, gracious and gentle, as you travel by road via Kompong Thom and the 7th century temples at Sambor Prei Kuk.
