The Deep South

Saigon sites, Cu Chi tunnels, Mekong River and Phu Quoc Island

We start our journey exploring Saigon by foot with visits to the Notredam Cathedral, Reunification Place and the War Museum. In the afternoon we visit Cu Chi to see a vast network of tunnels built by the Viet Cong. The next day we will drive to the Mekong River delta to visit the floating market and try some tropical fruit. This evening our accommodation is a 'homestay' to experience the local lifestyle and enjoy the traditional music.

After visiting the Mekong River we will transfer by boat to Phu Quoc Island. Phu Quoc is well known for stunning beaches, its untouched natural environment and the easy-going locals. Enjoy fantastic scuba diving, fishing and snorkelling, or just relaxing by the beach.

Phu Quoc Island is not only famous for its tranquil beaches but also for delicious food. The cuisine on Phu Quoc Island is heavily influenced by the bountiful harvest of fresh seafood, herbs and vegetables. Don't forget to try some local food with fish sauce (nuoc mam) – a Phu Quoc specialty.
